

I have listened to K-Love for about two years. Since it is the only Christian music station in my area, taking it off the air would greatly affect the local community. Because of K-Love, my local community is informed of many things, e.g. news, concert dates, prayer concerns. These things are not announced on other radio stations.